

Peter Karl III

CPA ATTORNEY PROFESSOR AUTHOR

Peter A. Karl III is a CPA-Attorney and partner of the law firm Paravati, Karl, Green and Debella, LLP in Utica, New York. In addition, he has taught for the past 41 years at State University of New York Polytechnic Institute where he is a tenured professor of law and taxation, teaching in both the business graduate and undergraduate programs of this AACSB Institution.

Karl, an honors graduate of the University of Notre Dame, has conducted over 275 tax seminars nationally and has authored several manuals on the subject of taxation. Sponsoring organizations for his seminars include numerous professional associations from Atlanta to Alaska. The CPA Journal has published 19 of his articles with his initial and 20th work appearing in the Practical Accountant.

Since 1989, he has been on the faculty of New York University's Real Estate Institute presenting 8-hour solo tax seminars periodically. For the past 17 years, Karl has been a member of the Editorial Board of The CPA Journal. He is also certified as a Hearing Neutral by the American Arbitration Association (AAA), conducting arbitration hearings on commercial matters throughout the Northeast.

Karl is licensed to practice before the US Tax Court and is a member of various professional associations including the American Academy of Attorney-Certified Public Accountants for whom he has served as an at large board member.
